

PATIENT CARE SUFFERS due to staff shortages

MD Analytics asked American physicians about staffing shortages since the pandemic began and the impact this has had on their practices and patient care.

80% of PCPs 78% of SPs practices have been impacted by a staff shortage in the past year.

Comparing before the pandemic to now, staff shortages have been:

Our ability to provide optimal care to patients has been:

60% of PCPs 61% of SPs Would like Pharmaceutical companies to get more involved in helping to reduce workloads in their practice.

They would appreciate support mainly in terms of:

- Reduced administrative burden for patients with prior authorization.

